Fall 2006

President's Letter

Not even a failed air-conditioning system in the AHS auditorium could dampen the spirit and enthusiasm of more than 200 members attending our 9th annual Alumni Open House on June 3. No air? No problem for old Colts, who never really sweat, they just move to cooler environs—the cafeteria—which proved to be a good venue to honor our 2006 Class of Distinguished Colt Alumni (pp. 2 & 3) and to revisit our musical past via the Alumni Band, led by Tanya-Terrell Weideman, '81, and Dana Pilon '76, and Alumni Choir, directed by legendary Colt By Choice, Jane Robin Ellis. Many thanks to those who helped pull it off.

While this fall marks the 50th anniversary of the opening of the Park Row building, the events of another era gave us pause to reflect upon those Colts who were, and are, part of America's "Greatest Generation." Class of 1946 president and Navy vet George Mills capably offered his reflections of AHS and Arlington during World War II, especially for his cohorts, the first to graduate after four years of global conflict.

George was not alone in his recall of post-war AHS. Wanda Marshall, '49, discovered the 1946 annual dedication page to "the boys and girls" serving in the armed forces and to the memory of those "who gave their lives that we might live in peace and security." I was stunned to learn that 34 Colts never came home from Europe and the Pacific, an extraordinary loss for a town of fewer than 5,000. I read their names at the Open House, and we were again humbled by the courage and conviction of Colts who understood their place in time and accepted without reservation their sacrifice to ensure the freedom of their hometown and nation.

Sixty years later, we remain a free people able to enjoy our classmates, as well as the memories of friends now gone and our many excellent teachers, principals, and administrators from AHS. The new learning cycle for future ex-Colts begins in a matter of weeks, and as part of the everlasting culture, you are invited to participate in Homecoming events, Sept. 8. Like our grand old flag, it's a grand old school, so come back and take it all in again. As always, thanks for your support and generosity which makes ours a strong and growing association befitting ex-Colts and those who will follow our tracks.

Introducing the 2006 class of Distinguished Colt Alumni

The late CHARLIE KEY, Class of 1959, capped his notable career at AHS by serving as student body president and receiving the Fielder Award. When Joy McAlpine Key, '59, was asked what Charlie might want the alumni to know about him and his feelings about AHS, she said it was where he discovered he was a leader. Joy also said that he met the love of his life on the stage of the old AHS building, and they had their first date at the football banquet their sophomore year. Charlie's football prowess, as well as his leadership abilities, carried him through his playing and coaching days at Arlington State College (now UTA). He was active in school, college and community affairs right up until his untimely death in August 2005. Charlie's children, Jon, '84, and Leigh Ellen, '88, followed their parents through the halls of Arlington High School.

Charlie Key

CHARLES MARSHALL, Class of 1951, and WANDA ROBERSON MARSHALL, Class of 1949, left Arlington shortly after marrying and it took them 22 years to get back. Charles moved up the ladder at Stratoflex in Michigan and Indiana returning to this area as vice-president in 1979. He eventually became president of the company until his retirement. Charles was late graduating from AHS because he missed a year of grade school when he was hit by a car and broke his leg. No homebound instruction in those days! That broken leg mended, though, because Charles was a standout football player for the Colts and holds city records to this day. Although the Marshalls weren't surprised by the town's growth because of frequent trips back, Wanda says she felt they had come home the day she knew the middle name of every one of her companions. Since their return, Wanda has been active in the Arlington Historical Society, serving as the group's treasurer for nine of her 11 years of service. Wanda also served as treasurer of the Alumni Association for three years. Charles, past president of the Alumni Association, still serves on the Alumni Board of Directors.

Class of 1949, DOROTHY THORNTON RENCURREL'S resumé of service to Arlington testifies to her commitment to her home town. Her involvement in Arlington's schools, clubs, arts, university and anything related to history and its preservation earned her the title of Arlington Woman-of-the-Year in 1988. It's not surprising that the one piece of advice she would give any AHS alum is to "get involved in your community." Dorothy says she is particularly proud of the work she did with various Arlington PTAs—service for which she received the first National PTA Life Membership awarded in our town. Alumni from the late 1940s probably remember in the spring of '48, the Colt Band won the statewide competition wearing the only uniforms they had at the time—white coveralls with green lettering on the back. When the band returned to acclaim, Hooker Vandergriff and son Tommy saw the attire and decided it was time for real uniforms. By football season of her senior year, Drum Major Dorothy and the entire band received band uniforms compliments of the Vandergriffs.

MIKE WADE, Class of 1976, brought wife Amy, also 1976 class, and son Blake to Arlington in 2003. Arlington had been home to the Wade family for five generations, and Blake became a fourth generation Colt ex upon his graduation this past May. The family left their home in Hubbard, Texas (where they had raised their two older daughters Lauren and Keely) to realize Mike's lifelong dream of opening up the only family run funeral home in Arlington, Wade Funeral Home. Just as in high school days where Mike was president of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, a letterman in football and track and voted Mr. AHS, Mike and Amy got involved in Arlington. They have been active in the Colt Football Booster Club, Theatre Arlington and Kiwanis Club. About coming back to Arlington, Mike says, "How sweet it is to be in Colt Country. We love it here."

MAYFIELD WORKMAN, Colt By Choice, came to Arlington in 1947 to coach the Arlington Colts. He was on the staff of the 1951 state championship team. Mayfield married Sterling Goodwin, AHS '36, in 1942 after they met at North Texas State Teachers College in Denton (now the University of North Texas). Their three children, Rusty, '63, Pamela, '66, and Patricia, '71, all graduated from AHS.

In 1963, Coach Workman moved into administration as the school district's first athletic director, a position he held until his retirement in 1980. The Arlington ISD honored his tenure as coach and AD by naming Workman Junior High for him. Coach Workman thanks the people he worked with over the years for helping him transition AHS and AISD to the size it is today. Oh, and he remembers one of his players—Charlie Marshall—as "a good student and a good athlete."

2006 Alumni Open House

Robert Broughton and Kristen Batchelor, two of our 2006 scholarship recipients, met alumni at the Open House.

Jane Ellis directs the singing of the alma mater.

Special guests Weldon Wright and Doyle Malone enjoy the Open House program.

2006 Alumni Scholars

Kristen Batchelor, Danielle Schartz, Summer Schartz, Robert Broughton

All of our 2006 scholars have attended school in Arlington since elementary days. Their paths first crossed at Bailey Junior High on their way to Colt Country. All four received the designation “Arlington Scholar” as they completed AHS.

KRISTEN BATCHELOR, who is headed to Texas Tech, is in the first generation of her family to attend college. She hasn’t decided on a major yet. Arlington High’s traditions make it a great place to go to high school and she will take with her the memory of “the friends I made and that I never went a day at school without someone making me smile.”

ROBERT BROUGHTON, starting at Tarrant County College’s Southeast campus, plans to major in Theatre and Political Science and to eventually attend law school. He is a second generation collegian in his family. The Fielder Award winner (outstanding senior boy) says AHS is great because of its “spirit...warm atmosphere...excitement...pride.” He will remember mainly the “fun and enthusiasm of football season as well as the warm and friendly folks.”

Honor graduates DANIELLE and SUMMER SCHARTZ (yes, they’re twins) will part ways this fall as Danielle moves on to Texas A&M and Summer heads for the University of Texas at Austin. Thanksgiving should be interesting for that family! Danielle will major in pre-med while Summer starts out in Architecture/Interior Design. They are in their family’s second generation to go on to higher education. Danielle loved the unity at AHS which made it “more like a family than just a place to learn.” Summer says the spirit, pride and tradition make AHS great. While Summer’s four years on Student Council will make fond memories, Danielle will treasure the friendships with her peers as well as with the AHS faculty and staff.

The Association has funded twelve scholarships since our first recipients were named in 2003. Your donations and purchases of X-pins and alumni t-shirts have made this possible. Our first winners, CHRIS BRANIGAN and QIANA ROLLINS will graduate next year. QIANA is on target to graduate from the University of Oklahoma in May 2007. She will earn a degree in psychology and plans on post-graduate work. She admits these years at OU have passed quickly. CHRIS returned to Southern Nazarene University in Oklahoma after completing a semester with the Focus on the Family Institute in Colorado in the fall of 2005. He continues his course work for a degree in Ministry & Theology and history. Following graduation in December 2007, he will go to Nazarene Theological Seminary in Kansas City.

Scholarship Support

Our apologies for the tardy appreciation to two anonymous donors who earlier this year sent in donations to the scholarship fund of $500 and $1,500. Other exes (see list) contributed to the fund by purchasing X-pins and/or Alumni t-shirts at reunions or the Alumni Open House. New item coming up: alumni caps. All profits from the sale of these items add to the scholarship fund.

Summer 2006: July 4th Parade and Alumni Open House

For the third year in a row Marsha Matlock, '75, and Sally Denton Culver, '76, organized alumni efforts in the Fourth of July Parade. The AHS contingent included one float from the Class of 1965, another from the Class of 1966, the Alumni Band, a '66 Mustang, and an '06 Mustang. Marching with us were current Colts, including cheerleaders, the Colt Band, and football players.

Happy 50th Birthday to a grand building, now shaded by towering live oak trees. Back in the day, students in Miss Amos' Room 203, could see over the trees toward town. This building opened in 1956 and has harbored Colt Country for a half-century.
