President's Letter

Summer greetings to all you wonderful Alums! This has been such a fun and exciting year so far!

RECENT SCHOLARSHIP FUNDRAISER

- We surpassed our goal of $5,000 raising almost $6,500 and are halfway to our ultimate goal—giving ten more scholarships in 2020 at $1,250 each! A healthy start thanks to all who donated online either through our GoFundMe page, or by mailing directly to us, or at Alumni Open House.
- The Class of 1959 has been a generous benefactor over the years. At Open House they turned over class funds to us in excess of $1,700. Other classes have donated with money left after reunions. Classes of 1948, '68, '78 are recent examples.
- Check out our Fall 2018 newsletter—archived on our website—to see major donations late last year which allowed us to give more scholarships in 2019 than ever before! Early this year (see Spring 2019 issue) one of our most steadfast benefactors donated a large sum to our general fund through the North Texas Community Foundation. These donations plus new memberships determine immensely our support for Arlington High!

OPEN HOUSE—ONE OF OUR BEST!

- Our tables reserved for reunion groups were completely full! We had six large groups: the classes of 1954, '57, '59,

'64, '69 and '74. What a great turnout of Colts—a witness to their everlasting enthusiasm for AHS!

- Eight of our Alumni Scholars along with family members attended. These young people really make you proud to be a Colt! Loved them and their wonderful stories.
- Our six Distinguished Colts were there with their families—deserving recipients one and all! Mickey Bryce even directed our choir!
- It was a great day of tribute for our dear Jane Robin Ellis as well. I am sure she was smiling down from heaven.
- Thanks to the Alumni Board, the Band, and volunteers who worked really hard in putting this all together, as they do each year!

JULY 4TH PARADE

- Did you know our first time to participate in this parade was 2004? Heading up that first effort were Sally Denton Culver, '76, and Marsha Matlock Campbell, '75. The late Robert Miles, '57, encouraged us to join the fun.
- So here we are, 15 years later, still singing and clapping our way along the downtown streets of Arlington in our Colt Corral, under the leadership of Kathy Einhaus, '68. We were right behind our great Alumni Band this year which made it so much more fun! They are the best!

NORTH TEXAS GIVING DAY—SEPTEMBER 19th

- This one-day online fundraising effort includes all of Tarrant County. Ads will be on TV and around town.

• You will be receiving more information from us as the time approaches. Please help us spread the word by talking it up in your community circles and with your fellow classmates. We are also interested in an individual, a business, or a group who would do a Matching Fund—a great chance to encourage others to donate.

Any chance you would consider?

SHOUT OUTS

- Randy Ford, '67, for helping us once again with our May Teachers' Luncheon as well as Cooper Street Bakery.
- Karl Osborn, '63, and Amy Osborn, '87, for being our official Open House Photographers. Great job, you two!

Saying goodbye has never been easy for me so I am not saying it! I hope to be around helping wherever I can. I just want to thank you for your continued support of my presidency and of our organization these past three years. Your donations have been beyond belief. We appreciate ALL our donors—large and small. The Association's visibility has increased—thanks to social media, our newsletter, the website and our participation in new fundraising efforts. We are on a roll! Be proud of this organization and continue to support it however you can. You might even seek out an available opportunity to serve on the Alumni Board.

Warmest regards and, as always ~

Kick 'em, Colts!

2019 Distinguished Colt Alumni

MARGIE FERGUSON BRYANT, CLASS OF 1948

- Earned bachelor's and master's degrees at University of North Texas
- Career teacher serving for 46 years in Fort Worth, Japan, Germany, Arlington, in the classroom and as curriculum consultant
- Namesake, along with her late husband Bill, of Bryant Elementary School

- Community activities: Texas Retired Teachers Association, Altrusa International, Arlington Memorial Hospital, tutoring Bryant Elementary, First Baptist Church

One of many moves during her school years brought Margie Ferguson to Arlington High before her junior year. While she admits her new school had a strong football team, what really impressed her was the caliber of the teachers. They knew their subjects; they knew how to teach; they expected their students to learn. Although she had always figured her only real career path was education, her teachers developed “her lukewarm wish to teach into a passion.” She remembers Principal James Martin and his high expectations and fair discipline. He was also the driver's ed teacher where he used his own car and the school parking lot. After becoming a consultant, Margie officed near Superintendent Martin. She reminded him he had never taught her to drive. He said, “Well, you have to have something to work with!” The Bryants came to the AISD in 1970. In 1993, the district named Bryant Elementary—a school whose students Margie calls the Bryant children. Nominated by Jack and Delouris Wages as a Distinguished Colt, Margie thanks the Arlington ISD and Arlington High School.

JOHN BALL—aka JOHN NELSON, CLASS OF 1965

- Radio/television play-by-play voice for Arlington sports events since 1972
- Studied at North Texas under Bill Mercer where he became a radio DJ, announcer, reporter, TV station producer
- Worked for WFAA, WBAP, KXOL, Southwest Conference football for the Mutual Network, Arlington Telecable, Time Warner, AT&T, Spectrum, Fox Southwest Sports, ESPN
- 2019 marks his 20th consecutive year of announcing live Arlington's Fourth of July parade

John Ball remembers Mr. Webb as a “great principal,” and wonderful teachers, such as “Miss Amos—the toughest but fair” in whose class “making a C felt like an A.” John served as president of the Key Club his senior year. In college he continued to develop the leadership and responsibility skills he first learned leading that organization. Although he loved hanging out at Pal's and the driving range on Pioneer Parkway, his love for Colt football “was and is still king, win or lose.” His devotion caused only one regret. He could have gone to Dallas to see the Beatles perform in 1964. He chose the football game instead! In addition, he recalls one day which stands alone—November 22, 1963. After the president's death, school let out; Homecoming was cancelled; the game was played the following Tuesday. His nominators, brother John Ball and classmate Scott Chandler, believe the John Nelson they know as John Ball embodies the very nature of what it takes to be named a Distinguished Colt—a “permanent, human hallmark of Colt dedication, pride and spirit.”

JO ELLA COLLIFLOWER MCGOVERN, CLASS OF 1966

- Nominated twice for this year's honor by classmate Peggy Wood Martin and daughter Beth Anne Woodard
- AISD educator for 41 years
- Speech therapist, special ed teacher, lead teacher in the district's first pre-kindergarten program
- Tireless volunteer for United Way, Arlington Library Foundation, Life Shelter, Texas Rangers Woman's Club, Arlington's retired teachers, Delta Kappa Gamma teacher's sorority, the AHS Alumni Association Board of Directors

Jo feels she was blessed to be a part of Arlington High School. From her musical days in Choraliers and as a nurse in South Pacific, getting to ride in the Homecoming parade as Library Sweetheart, working on the annual staff, having Miss Roddy suggest she would make a great teacher, making an F in Mrs. Francis' class for misspelling “choir,” and going to Girl's State in Austin, with Miss Amos commenting that she deserved to go “even if I did not know the difference between ‘respectively’ and ‘respectfully.’” And like the song says, Jo knows she “owes her fortune” to her teachers and friends at Arlington High. She helps with class reunions, has served in two different capacities on the Association board, nominated Alvin and Martha Moseley for Distinguished Colts. Jo is proud to say she graduated from Arlington High School, and she enjoys all the other Arlington alumni who live and breathe green. Another song resonates for Jo: “It plays in my heart and mind as I have walked through some storms since I graduated from AHS.” Jo's heart and mind—given without reservation in service to others—exemplifies the character of a Distinguished Colt.

GWYNETHE REDDY LEWIS, CLASS OF 1976

- United States Army, serving 33 years, from 1980 - 2013
- Service Medals: 10 Commendation, 2 National Defense, 2 Outstanding Volunteer Service, 2 Meritorious Unit Awards, 1 Individual Meritorious Service Award
- Member of the Disabled Veterans Organization, Fort Worth Chapter

Gwynethe was nominated by her proud son, Garrison Lewis, AHS, Class of 2008. He tells us that she joined the military after high school and retired as a First Sergeant. Stationed in many locations, her favorites were Fort Sill, Oklahoma and Washington D.C. Gwynethe shares with us that moment when she stood at her mailbox reading the letter from the Association that she had been selected as a Distinguished Colt, she immediately called the “guilty party” who submitted the nomination. She remembers like it was yesterday where her lockers were at AHS, where she and her friends went to lunch, the scary bus driver, the bell schedule, and how big the school was. Her mother made her take typing which made Gwynethe mad because she didn’t want to. In college, in her civilian jobs, in the military, she discovered Mom was right, and she still misses her typewriter! AHS (and typing) prepared her for the years to come. She learned to stand up for herself, to believe in herself, to fight for her beliefs. She says, “I was never popular, not a cheerleader or an athlete. Later I made up for all that.” As a First Sergeant she had over 300 soldiers in her command at any given time. Popularity didn’t matter. Rank did! Her #1 career achievement: she never lost a soldier during all her deployments, and Garrison adds, “Those soldiers all came back in one piece.”

ANNA PETTIT, CLASS OF 1974

- Community volunteer—Arlington Police Department North Station front desk, Citizens On Patrol, Code Ranger, Arlington Environmental Committee, Coordinator Historic Oak Hill neighborhood, where she lives in a home built in 1941 and lived in by her grandparents
- Arlington High School—longest serving president in history of the AHS Alumni Association, coordinator Class of 1974 reunion committee, grant reader for the Arlington ISD Education Foundation
- Lighting designer for Ballet Concerto in Fort Worth for last five years
- Fourth generation of her family to call Arlington home; grandmother Eugenia Gilchrist Webb graduated from AHS in 1921 and mother Betty Webb Pettit in 1942.

In her nomination of Anna, classmate Libby Altwegg names her one of Arlington’s (city and high school) biggest fans. Looking at the way Anna devotes her time, who could argue? In addition to serving as president of the AHS Alumni Association two years longer than any other president, Anna signed up to be an Arlington Dream Team Digital Ambassador who spreads the good news about her hometown. Her favorite memories of her student days involve pep rallies, track and swim competition, eating lunch off campus. She remembers Principal Crouch (who coined the saying: How Sweet It Is To Be In Colt Country!) and Vice-Principal Spracklen. Speech and drama along with the musicals and plays led Anna to her dream of working in live theater. She began stage managing in Dallas soon after graduation which eventually led to her work in lighting design. Her term as Alumni Association president, knowing the terrific people who have been selected since 1997, means Anna knows the joy this honor brings.

MICKY BRYCE, CLASS OF 1974

- Nominated by his family, all AHS alumni: the late Truman, ’45, Kitty, ’50, Wally, ’75, Lee Ann ’78
- Served at churches in Denton, Arlington, Colorado, Arizona
- Founder of several concert ministries: Evenings in Arlington, Valley Nights in Tempe; Broadway Outreach Music Series in Tempe and Mesa
- Served in numerous community theater organizations as director, music director, actor
- Organizing pastor of Centerstage Church in Mesa which houses a new ministry—a fully functioning community theater on its campus

In high school, Mickey’s two great loves were football and music. On the night before All-State Choir auditions, a football injury landed him in the hospital. He thought his chance to audition was gone. On Saturday morning, Jane Robin Ellis got Mickey released, drove up the sidewalk at Arlington Memorial, got him in the car along with his music and drove him to the audition. He was one of only two singers from AHS that year to make the All-State Choir. His career as a theater producer began on the AHS stage—a show his dad photographed of the 1973 cast of Hello, Dolly. Mickey remembers fondly the friendships from those wonderful AHS years—hanging out at the DQ across Cooper, drinking Grape soda and recuperating from physical exhaustion. Mickey says of Coach Mike Stovall who made a linebacker out of him: “He pushed me harder than I thought possible and prepared me for the push and pull of life to follow.” Being connected to the Rotary Club, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and First Baptist Church all came from friends he had from Arlington High School. Mickey dedicates this honor to his parents who loved and nurtured him for every moment he has had.

2019 Alumni Open House

Once alumni enter the cafeteria which was completed in 2013, they pass by the alumni products for sale, register their attendance, check out the display of Colt memorabilia, look at the roster of members, chat with folks from many different classes, and sing the Fight Song as if they were still at a pep rally.

2019 Alumni Scholars

IFEJOLA ADEBO

Class of 1962 Jackie Peach Wells
Memorial Scholarship
University of Texas at Arlington
Chemical Engineering

For Ifejola, three words characterize her experience at Arlington High School: togetherness, perseverance, tolerance. This young girl from Nigeria enrolled at AHS just weeks after arriving in this country. Her initial loneliness gave way to friendships as she determined to approach and talk to three people every day. Once she got involved “the people at Arlington High made me feel loved and the school felt like home.” Her professional goal is to bring purified and affordable drinking water to underdeveloped countries.

MATTIE BENNETT

University of Arkansas
Psychology/Criminology

Mattie’s three words—growing, challenging, including—make her point that her days at AHS changed her both academically and socially. The overriding challenge was the expectation to be “the best version of ourselves.” This meant “accepting one another in our diversity. Without this environment we would be unprepared for the real world.” A favorite memory is beating Martin in football. “I will never forget the pride I felt for my school. I will take the feeling with me forever.”

IFRAH CHOWDHRY

Captain William H. Nation
Memorial Scholarship
Stephen F. Austin
Psychology/Law Enforcement

Code Green, the celebration of AHS campus life, occurs once every four years. During freshman year, “the school was filled with positive energy.” Ifrah’s three words—friendly, loving, positive—meant students were “not like what they say in all those teen chick flicks. Colts make sure you are a part of them and not lonely. At first I was apprehensive and scared, but because of the AHS family, I couldn’t be more content knowing I spent an important time of my life in a safe environment.”

THOMAS HOLLOWAY

Texas Christian University
Music Education

As a freshman, Thomas was in both band and choir. As he thought about dropping band, his band director suggested he audition for drum major. This spurred his confidence to continue in both fields. His senior year he did, indeed, serve as drum major. This bold suggestion and his bold decision to audition led to his career path. “Teachers at AHS allow students to be open without promising anything but an open ear and a warm heart. Loving is my main word to describe campus life.” His teachers were determined for their students to succeed. When Thomas waves his baton as a choir or band director, all alumni can be confident that AHS spirit, pride, tradition will continue through him.

TYRIN KING

Tarrant County College
Bachelors and Masters Degrees

Tyrin’s three words—lively, optimism, opportunity—tell us his story. For him, AHS liveliness results from its “vibrant diversity.” He leaves AHS excited to dedicate the next five years to degrees “in honor of his mother.” But it was an opportunity to play football his junior year after a two year hiatus that made a big difference in his high school days. Coach Phippen “helped me gain the motivation to play again by getting in shape, regaining my health and becoming a better version of myself.”

NYLA MCGEE

Class of 1962 Eddy Bost Branch
Memorial Scholarship
University of North Texas
Biology

Nyala is another Code Green fan—a week when she felt appreciated and was excited to come to school each day. AHS has so much opportunity to take advantage of—classes, clubs, events. “Coming from Michigan I got to experience craft fairs, pep rallies and mum making which I had never done before.” The AHS campus feels like family with everyone “devoted to helping you reach goals.” AHS has been fun and has formed “long lasting memories I can cherish forever.”

JADAH PARKER

University of North Texas
Business Administration/
Management or Finance/Interior
Design

Jadah loves the pride AHS students have in the culture of the school. First comes the camaraderie because “everyone here is friendly” which forms solid relationships based on respect. It is a safe place—not just physically, but emotionally. “When I had serious conversations with teachers I knew I could trust them. At Arlington High you get the feeling you can do anything if you just work hard enough because of all who are supporting you from beginning to end as you gain a better understanding of who you want to be.”

KENTAYSHIJA PRUITT

Class of 1962 Gaylene Garrison Pierce
Memorial Scholarship
Indiana Tech

Kinesiology/Physical Therapy

Kentayshija credits the AVID program for “conquering doubts” she could be first in her family to go to college. Another confidence builder was on the track as a regional qualifier in the 300 meter hurdles. “Track has opened doors for me,” and might even lead to the Olympics. “At AHS, not a day goes by when I am not inspired to reach my goals with the help of supportive teachers.” The diversity affords every student a place to fit in. Colts feel pride in honoring, respecting and taking responsibility for each other. The acronym C.O.L.T.S. means Commitment, Ownership, Loyalty, Toughness, Selflessness. We stick together on a “campus which makes us feel at home.”

DAKOTA SHIRLEY

Cathy Bontley Brown Scholarship
Hardin-Simmons University
Education/Coaching

Dakota says AHS is all about community, family, success. He and his buddies knew as freshmen, they would be “bottom of the food chain.” When the community took over, “from day one I was at ease. Even the upperclassmen weren’t as bad as I thought they would be.” Early in his senior year, his mother was killed by a drunk driver. “My coaches, teammates, the AHS family rallied around me. Not only was I encouraged to keep playing football, I improved enough to contribute to our undefeated season and playoff run. I have no doubt my family is much bigger because I am a Colt. With support like this, it is almost impossible to fail at AHS, as long as you put effort into your goals.”

SARA YOUSSEF

Criminal Justice/Criminal Science

Shortly after nearly losing her brother in a motorcycle accident, Sara had to give a speech in class. She told her teacher and a friend she was still struggling. Her friend told students to cheer her on. “I could not have found any other place so kind to me.” Inspired, she finished her speech. Her teacher held her hands out for a hug. “That act of comfort showed me high school was a positive experience for me.” Motivational messages decorate the halls at AHS. “I saw a note on a bathroom mirror. It said: Look in this mirror. You’re beautiful and worth living. I have attended a school which treats others with an open heart.”

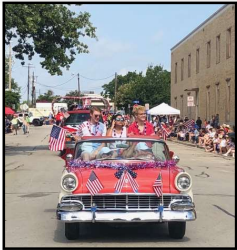

Throughout the applications of the approximately 40 seniors who applied for our scholarships, students lauded the AHS staff with praise and appreciation. Those mentioned by name: Principal Dhalla, Leila Perez, Shelley Hucaby, Ms. Thomas, Matt Waldman, Karen Will, coaches Pippin, Keith, Smitherman. Others referenced—freshman AP English teacher, a math teacher, Colt Band directors. Teachers really do make a difference.
